DETAILED ACTION

1> This action is in response to Applicant's amendment. Claims 1-8, 10, 12-16 and 19-42 are presented for further examination.

Allowable Subject Matter

2> Claims 1-8, 10, 12-16 and 19-42 are allowed.

3> The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's invention is directed towards a configurable virtual machine such that a user can utilize browsers to access the virtual machine. In particular, the independent claims were amended in light of Examiner's objection to allowable subject matter in claims 9, 11, 17 and 18. The limitations of claims 9 and 11 were incorporated into claim 1. The limitations of claims 17 and 18 were incorporated into claim 13.

In regards to claim 1, nothing in the prior art discloses a virtual machine with the combination or interaction of internal elements present in claim 1 - a request handler, plurality of services and an element that utilizes the services to generate an output, the output providing state information regarding the virtual machine, the output further in a format suitable for use by a browser. In particular, nothing in the prior art discloses the use of a data structure by the aforementioned elements, the data structure having a pointer area and a segment query area, the pointer area identifying the services utilized by an operations worker element.

Art Unit: 2152

As to claim 13, nothing in the prior art disclosed the combination and interaction of elements as claimed. In particular, the steps of parsing a request into segments to determine the service required to respond to the request and creating a pointer to the service in a service library in combination with the other steps of the method of claim 13 are distinguished over the prior art references.

Based on these remarks, Examiner believes the invention is now in condition for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
